JAMES REED & SUR, Prop're. ASHTABULA. 1 A OHIO.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

This great and free Nation is suf-ering from entirely too much Springer. Philadelphia Bulletin.

ser Some Democrats in Maine are aking an effort to raise a subscription in aid of E. F. Pillabury, the chief of the counting-out conspiracy.

262 You can't be a Democrat with-out believing in the rights of Secession and Nullification, and there's no use fooling.—Octona (Miss.) States (Dem.). Bes Sty Dumocrats propose to nominate a military man if the Chicago Convention puts up a civilian, and a civilian if a military man is named by the Remublicans.

Best Republican editors having a large stock of ammunition left over from the last campaign sympathize deeply with the Sags of Cipher Alley, and hope he will pull through at Cincinnati.

Best The Count Hendrikoff and his wife have been bankhed from Russia because the lady talked too freely about the love-affairs of the Court. Ferhaps the Count had better come to this court.

the Count had better come to this country and run for Vice-Fresident on the Democratic ticket. Tilden and Hendrikoff would sound well.—Chicago Tribhealth is again under discussion. His political worshipers in New York say "It was never better," while those who want him dead declare that he is about ready to die. If by being "ready." they mean that he is fit to die, we beg to express our doubts. He is no more fit to die thun he is to be President.—Chicago Evening Journal.

Ber A bill has been presented in the Mississippi Legislature making the offense of encouraging emigration from the State punishable by a fine of twenty dollars. Only one more act is needed to complete this polley, and that is a law punishing with fine and imprisonment anybody who, being asked by a proper agent, refuses to immigrate to Mississippi.—Chicago Tribune.

Mississippi.—Chicago Tribune.

See A dispatch to the New York World states that the Tilden part is preparing to attempt to capture the Cincinnati Convention by means similar to those employed at St. Louis. On the day the convention was fixed for Cincinnati, a friend of Tilden telegraphed to the Cincinnati hotels ordering some 300 rooms, to secure quarters for a large party of Tilden strikers to work for him at the hotels, on the streets and in the lobbies of the convention.

Oregon, was the only place offered whose selection would not have aroused local or national jealousies, and where the convention would have been safe from the presence of a local crowd, and be sure to perform its work with sobriety and besorem. Jackson, Mississippi, would have been a good place; but the northern delegates evidently did not dare risk themselves in a locality when accidents with firearms are so frequent. One vote was cast in favor of blank. That would be an admirable place for a Democratic National Convention. After the convention a great many Democrats, and all the disappointed candidates, will heartify wish the convention had gone to blank, and a lot of them will probably express a wish that its ticket and platform may go to blank.

cratic National Convention is to be held three weeks later than the Republican National Convention. The Democratic party proposes to see what ticket and platform the Republicans put in the field before it ventures to declare its platform and ticket. Perhaps the Republican choice of the Republica

-Neutress is the first virtue in the kitchen. The dishes of a careless cook all have a mixed flavor, as if cooked in one pot. The general rule is to cook long and slowly, with an even heat, so as to reach every part. Prying ought to be the last method for cooking means. Broil, boil, roast, stew or bake in preference.

FARM AND FIRESIDE.

To must meat preperly, the air must have free access to it. This is the reason why must possed before an open the large in the l with, but it often is so. The heedless practice of putting small articles into the mouth, either for the purpose of holding them for a few moments or for playing some trick, has been frequently attended with very serious consequences. Yet the practice is common, especially among young women, who may be seen holding pins between their testh while dressing. Medical attendants in benefits have free the second of the property of the propert

Some of the Democratic party proposes to see what tacket and platform the Hemphilicans put in the platform and ticker. Perhaps the Ref. in publican choice may dampen the ambition of some of the Democratic candidates and platform makers. They may not be so segre when they see the work a cut out for them, the issues to meet, and the ticket they have to run against.
